Preface.

AS the editors of this edition of "The Hymnal Revised and Enlarged," our chief aim has been to adapt the tunes to the thoughts and sentiments of the words of the hymns, in order that the congregation together with the choir may be able to "sing with the spirit and with the understanding also."

In the selection of tunes we have considered not only the ability and taste of those "who are skilled in music," but also the wishes and capacity of men, women, and children who, without pretending either to musical culture or skill, yet are devoutly disposed not only "to make melody in the heart," but to join with the voice in the service of praise. We have accordingly introduced, as far as was deemed expedient, what are commonly known as "old and familiar tunes"; thereby risking the criticism and, perhaps, the censure of many congenial friends with whom we partly sympathize, in whom the familiarity of the popular tune too often breeds contempt.

A peculiar feature of this musical hymnal is the number of tunes composed expressly for it by church musicians whose names will be readily recognized in this country and in Great Britain: herein following the example of the good householder, "which bringeth out of his treasure things new and old."

We have omitted metronome marks, agreeing with Dr. W. H. Monk "that the speed must always vary with the size of the congregation; a large congregation singing more slowly than a small one without the rhythmical sense perceiving any difference." In this connection we venture to quote the words of Sir George Macfarren:

Let me refer to the growing practice of singing — psalm-tunes especially, but some other portions of the church-service — at a speed most unseemly for pious strains, and with as little emphasis as solemnity. There is no warrant for this hustling liveliness of manner in any record of ancient usage, and it has no support in the effect it works in modern practice; many an earnest man is scandalized by the unfitness of the manner to the matter, and too many others give way to flippancy.

It is with much pleasure and with high appreciation of their generous and hearty efforts to comply with our wishes, and thus enhance the value of this edition of the hymnal, that we would make our grateful acknowledgments for the cordial assistance of our kind and obliging friends:

Our thanks are also extended to many kindly disposed friends whose contributions were received too late for insertion.

Grateful acknowledgments are likewise due for the use of copyright tunes to Mr. E. A. Bedell, for use of tune "Westwood" to Hymn 68; by arrangement with Messrs. Ditson & Co., for use of Mr. Knox's tunes to Hymns 109, 317, and 432; to Messrs. Harper & Brothers, for permission to use tunes from Dr. Geo. W. Warren's "Hymns and Tunes" to Hymns 243, 244, 341, and 653; to Mr. Arthur P. Schmidt, for use of Mr. Knox's tunes to Hymns 22, 523, 632, and 673; to Messrs. E. & J. B. Young & Co., for use of tune "Marion" to Hymn 520; and to The International Music Co., of New York, for courtesies extended.

We are especially obliged to Dr. Walter B. Gilbert, for original tunes, for the use of other tunes already published, and for his careful adaptation of chants to the morning and evening canticles and occasional anthems, and for his willing and valuable coöperation generally in our work.

Hoping that this musical edition of "The Hymnal Revised and Enlarged" may meet the wants and wishes of many friends and fellow-worshipers, we share the earnest desire that our joint labor and work of love, through the Divine blessing, may promote the glory of almighty God, to whom all praise is due.

| 2 New mercies, each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven. | 4 Old friends, old scenes, will lovelier be,
As more of heaven in each we see;
Some softening gleam of love and prayer
Shall dawn on every cross and care. |
| 3 If on our daily course our mind
Be set to hallow all we find,
New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice. | 5 The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we need to ask;
Room to deny ourselves, a road
To bring us daily nearer God. |
| 6 Only, O Lord, in Thy dear love,
Fit us for perfect rest above;
And help us, this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray. | |

rise To pay thy morn - ing sac - ri - fice. A - MEN.

2 Redeem thy misspent time that 's past,
And live this day as if thy last;
Improve thy talent with due care;
For the great Day thyself prepare.

3 Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who all night long, unwearied, sing
High praise to the eternal King.

PART II.

4 All praise to Thee, Who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me while I slept;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless light partake.

6 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In Thy sole glory may unite.

5 Lord, I my vows to Thee renew;
Scatter my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with Thyself my spirit fill.

7 Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, angelic host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Bishop Ken, 1695.

The Doxology may be sung also at the end of Part I.

- 2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away,
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou Who changest not, abide with me.
- 3 I need Thy presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.
- 4 I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless:
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.
- 5 Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes:
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies:
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee:
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

1. At ev - en, ere the sun was set, The sick, O Lord, a - round Thee lay ;

Oh, in what divers pains they met ! Oh, with what joy they went a - way ! A-MEN.

2 Once more 'tis eventide, and we Oppressed with various ills draw near ;
What if Thy form we cannot see ?
We know and feel that Thou art here.

5 And none, O Lord, have perfect rest,
For none are wholly free from sin ;
And they who fain would love Thee best
Are conscious most of wrong within.

3 O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel ;
For some are sick, and some are sad,
And some have never loved Thee well,
And some have lost the love they had,

6 O Saviour Christ, Thou too art Man ;
Thou hast been troubled, tempted, tried ;
Thy kind, but searching glance can scan
The very wounds that shame would hide.

4 And some have found the world is vain,
Yet from the world they break not free,
And some have friends who give them pain,
Yet have not sought a friend in Thee.

7 Thy touch has still its ancient power ;
No word from Thee can fruitless fall ;
Hear, in this solemn evening hour,
And in Thy mercy heal us all.

The shadows of the evening hours.

D. C. M.

HENRY HILES, Mus. Doc.

1. The shad - ows of the even - ing hours Fall from the darkening sky ;

Evening

Up - on the fra - grance of the flowers The dews of even - ing lie.

The first system of musical notation is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It features a melody in the treble clef and a harmonic accompaniment in the bass clef. The melody begins with a half note G, followed by quarter notes A, B, and C, then a half note D. The accompaniment consists of chords: G-B, A-C, B-D, and C-B. A dynamic marking 'p' (piano) is placed above the melody.

2. Be - fore Thy throne, O Lord of heaven, We kneel at close of day ;

The second system of musical notation continues the melody and accompaniment. The melody has a crescendo marking 'cres.' above it. It includes a half note G, quarter notes A, B, and C, and a half note D. The accompaniment continues with chords: G-B, A-C, B-D, and C-B.

Look on Thy chil-dren from on high, And hear us while we pray. A-MEN.

The third system of musical notation concludes the piece. The melody features a half note G, quarter notes A, B, and C, and a half note D. The accompaniment continues with chords: G-B, A-C, B-D, and C-B. The system ends with a double bar line.

3 The sorrows of Thy servants, Lord,
Oh, do not Thou despise,
But let the incense of our prayers
Before Thy mercy rise.

4 The brightness of the coming night
Upon the darkness rolls ;
With hopes of future glory chase
The shadows on our souls.

5 Slowly the rays of daylight fade :
So fade within our heart
The hopes in earthly love and joy,
That one by one depart.

6 Slowly the bright stars, one by one,
Within the heavens shine :
Give us, O Lord, fresh hopes in heaven,
And trust in things divine.

7 Let peace, O Lord, Thy peace, O God,
Upon our souls descend ;
From midnight fears, and perils, Thou
Our trembling hearts defend :

8 Give us a respite from our toil ;
Calm and subdue our woes ;
Through the long day we labor, Lord,
Oh, give us now repose.

3 The toils of day are over:

I raise the hymn to Thee,

And ask that free from peril

The hours of fear may be:

O Jesu, keep me in Thy sight,

And guard me through the coming night!

4 Lighten mine eyes, O Saviour,

Or sleep in death shall I,

And he, my wakeful tempter,

Triumphantly shall cry

"He could not make their darkness light,
Nor guard them through the hours of night."

5 Be Thou my soul's preserver,

O God! for Thou dost know

How many are the perils

Through which I have to go.

Lover of men, oh, hear my call,

And guard and save me from them all!

Saviour, breathe an evening blessing.

FROM BEETHOVEN.

1. Sa-viour, breathe an eve - ning bless-ing, Ere re - pose our spir - its seal;

Evening

- 2 Though the night be dark and dreary,
Darkness cannot hide from Thee;
Thou art He Who, never weary,
Watchest where Thy people be.
- 3 Though destruction walk around us,
Though the arrows past us fly,
Angel-guards from Thee surround us;
We are safe, if Thou art nigh.
- 4 Be Thou nigh, should death o'ertake us;
Jesu then our refuge be,
- And in Paradise awake us,
There to rest in peace with Thee.
- 5 Father, to Thy holy keeping
Humbly we ourselves resign;
Saviour, Who hast slept our sleeping,
Make our slumbers pure as Thine;
- 6 Blessed Spirit, brooding o'er us,
Chase the darkness of our night,
Till the perfect day before us
Breaks in everlasting light.

1. All praise to Thee, my God, this night, For all the bless-ings of the light;
- Keep me, oh, keep me, King of kings, Be-neath Thine own al - migh - ty wings. A-MEN.
- 2 Forgive me, Lord, for Thy dear Son,
The ill that I this day have done;
That with the world, myself, and Thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.
- 3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed;
Teach me to die, that so I may Rise glorious at the awful day.
- 4 Oh, may my soul on Thee repose,
And may sweet sleep mine eyelids close;
Sleep that shall me more vigorous make
To serve my God when I awake.
- 5 When in the night I sleepless lie,
My soul with heavenly thoughts supply;
Let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
No powers of darkness me molest.
- 6 Oh, when shall I, in endless day,
Forever chase dark sleep away,
And hymns divine with angels sing,
All praise to Thee, eternal King?
- 7 Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, angelic host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Advent

2 Bright the world and glorious,
Calm both earth and sea,
Noble in its grandeur
Stood man's purity;
Came the great transgression,
Came the saddening fall,
Death and desolation
Breathing over all.
Still in regal glory,
'Mid eternal light,
Reigned the King immortal,
Holy, infinite.

3 Long the nations waited,
Through the troubled night,
Looking, longing, yearning,
For the promised light.
Prophets saw the morning
Breaking far away,
Minstrels sang the splendor
Of that opening day.
Whilst in regal glory,
'Mid eternal light,
Reigned the King immortal,
Holy, infinite.

4 Brightly dawned the Advent
Of the new-born King,
Joyously the watchers
Heard the angels sing.
Sadly closed the evening
Of His hallowed life,

As the noontide darkness
Veiled the last dread strife.
Lo! again in glory,
'Mid eternal light,
Reigns the King immortal,
Holy, infinite.

5 Lo! again He cometh,
Robed in clouds of light,
As the Judge eternal,
Armed with power and might.
Nations to His footstool
Gathered then shall be;
Earth shall yield her treasures,
And her dead, the sea.
Till the trumpet soundeth,
Reign, Thou King immortal,
Holy, infinite.

6 Jesu! Lord and Master,
Prophet, Priest and King,
To Thy feet, triumphant,
Hallowed praise we bring.
Thine the pain and weeping,
Thine the victory;
Power, and praise, and honor,
Be, O Lord, to Thee.
High in regal glory,
Reign, O King immortal,
Holy, infinite.

Day of wrath! oh, day of mourning!

Heaven and earth in ash-es burn-ing! 2. Oh, what fear man's bo-som rend-eth, p dim.

When from heaven the Judge descend-eth, On Whose sentence all de-pend-eth.

3 Wondrous sound the trumpet flingeth;
Through earth's sepulchres it ringeth;
All before the throne it bringeth.

4 Death is struck, and nature quaking,
All creation is awaking,
To its Judge an answer making.

5 Lo! the Book exactly worded,
Wherein all hath been recorded:
Thence shall judgment be awarded.

6 When the Judge His seat attaineth,
And each hidden deed arraigneth,
Nothing unavenged remaineth.

7 What shall I, frail man, be pleading?
Who for me be interceding,
When the just are mercy needing?

8 King of majesty tremendous,
Who dost free salvation send us,
Fount of pity, then befriend us!

9 Think, good Jesu, my salvation
Cost Thy wondrous Incarnation;
Leave me not to reprobation!

10 Faint and weary Thou hast sought me
On the cross of suffering bought me.
Shall such grace be vainly brought me?

11 Righteous Judge! for sin's pollution
Grant Thy gift of absolution,
Ere that day of retribution.

12 Guilty, now I pour my moaning,
All my shame with anguish owning;
Spare, O God, Thy suppliant groaning!

13 Thou the sinful woman saved'st;
Thou the dying thief forgavest;
And to me a hope vouchsafest.

14 Worthless are my prayers and sighing,
Yet, good Lord, in grace complying,
Rescue me from fires undying!

2 The dead in Christ shall first arise
At the last trumpet's sounding,
Caught up to meet Him in the skies,
With joy their Lord surrounding:
No gloomy fears their souls dismay,
His presence sheds eternal day
On those prepared to meet Him.

3 But sinners, filled with guilty fears,
Behold His wrath prevailing;
For they shall rise and find their tears
And sighs are unavailing:

The day of grace is past and gone;
Trembling, they stand before the throne,
All unprepared to meet Him.

4 Great God, to Thee my spirit clings,
Thy boundless love declaring;
One wondrous sight my comfort brings,
The Judge my nature wearing.
Beneath His cross I view the day
When heaven and earth shall pass away,
And thus prepare to meet Him.

2 Oh, that ever-blessèd birthday,
When the Virgin, full of grace,
By the Holy Ghost conceiving,
Bare the Saviour of our race ;
And that Child, the world's Redeemer,
First displayed His sacred face,
Evermore and evermore !

3 Praise Him, O ye heaven of heavens !
Praise Him, angels in the height !
Every power and every virtue
Sing the praise of God aright :
Let no tongue of man be silent,
Let each heart and voice unite,
Evermore and evermore !

4 Thee let age, and Thee let manhood,
Thee let choirs of infants sing ;
Thee the matrons and the virgins,
And the children answering :
Let their guileless song re-echo,
And their heart its praises bring,
Evermore and evermore !

5 Christ, to Thee with God the Father,
And, O Holy Ghost, to Thee,
Hymn and chant and high thanksgiving,
And unwearied praises be :
Honor, glory, and dominion,
And eternal victory,
Evermore and evermore !

- 2 Then to the watchful shepherds it was told,
Who heard the angelic herald's voice : "Behold,
I bring good tidings of a Saviour's birth
To you and all the nations upon earth :
This day hath God fulfilled His promised word,
This day is born a Saviour, Christ the Lord."
- 3 He spake ; and straightway the celestial choir
In hymns of joy, unknown before, conspire :
The praises of redeeming love they sang,
And heaven's whole arch with alleluias rang :
God's highest glory was their anthem still,
Peace upon earth, and unto men good-will.
- 4 To Bethlehem straight the happy shepherds ran,
To see the wonder God had wrought for man :
And found, with Joseph and the blessèd maid,
Her Son, the Saviour, in a manger laid ;
Amazed the wondrous story they proclaim,
The earliest heralds of the Saviour's name.
- 5 Let us, like these good shepherds, then employ
Our grateful voices to proclaim the joy ;
Trace we the Babe, Who hath retrieved our loss,
From His poor manger to His bitter cross ;
Treading His steps, assisted by His grace,
Till man's first heavenly state again takes place.
- 6 Then may we hope, the angelic thrones among,
To sing, redeemed, a glad triumphal song ;
He, that was born upon this joyful day,
Around us all His glory shall display ;
Saved by His love, incessant we shall sing
Of angels and of angel-men the King.

The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts

But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive Him still,

The deadly cup, that overran

Lo! kings in adoration fall,

4 Holy Jesus! every day
Keep us in the narrow way;
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds Thy glory hide.

3 As they offered gifts most rare
At that manger rude and bare;
So may we with holy joy,
Pure and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
Christ! to Thee our heavenly King.

5 In the heavenly country bright,

There forever may we sing

 All hail, incarnate Word,

 Saviour most blest;

Fill us with love that never faints,
 Grant us with all Thy blessed saints,

 One with the Ancient of all days,
 One with the Comforter in praise,
 All light and love.

Thorns, and nails, and piercing spear?

Sing, my tongue, the Saviour's battle.

SAMUEL P. WARREN.

1. Sing, my tongue, the Sav - iour's bat - tle, Tell His tri - umph far and wide;

Tell a - loud the won - drous sto - ry Of His Bo - dy cru - ci - fied;

How up - on the cross a vic - tim, Van - quish - ing in death, He died. A - MEN.

- 2 Eating of the tree forbidden,
Man had sunk in Satan's snare,
When our pitying Creator
Did this second tree prepare,
Destined, many ages later,
That first evil to repair.
- 3 So, when now at length the fullness
Of the time foretold drew nigh,
God the Son, the world's Creator,
Left His Father's throne on high,
From the Virgin's womb appearing Clothed in our humanity.
- 4 Thus did Christ to perfect manhood
In our mortal flesh attain;
Then of His free choice He goeth

- To a death of bitter pain;
He, the Lamb upon the altar
Of the cross, for us was slain.
- 5 Lo, with gall His thirst He quenches,
See the thorns upon His brow;
Nails His tender flesh are rending;
See, His side is piercèd now;
Whence, to cleanse the whole creation,
Streams of blood and water flow.
- 6 Christ, to Thee with God the Father,
And, O Holy Ghost, to Thee,
Hymn and chant and high thanksgiving,
And unwearied praises be;
Honor, glory and dominion
And eternal victory.

1. Now, my soul, thy voice up - rais - ing, Tell in sweet and mourn - ful strain

Free - ly of His love was of - fered, Sin - less was for sin - ners slain. A-MEN.

- 2 Scourged with unrelenting fury,
 For the sins which we deplore,
 By His livid stripes He heals us,
 Raising us to fall no more;
 All our bruises gently soothing,
 Binding up the bleeding sore.
- 3 See ! His hands and feet are fastened ;
 So He makes His people free ;
 Not a wound whence blood is flowing
 But a fount of grace shall be ;
 Yea, the very nails which nail Him
 Nail us also to the tree.

- 4 Through His heart the spear is piercing,
 Though His foes have seen Him die ;
 Blood and water thence are streaming
 In a tide of mystery ;
 Water from our guilt to cleanse us,
 Blood to win us crowns on high.

- 5 Jesu, may those precious fountains
 Drink to thirsting souls afford :
 Let them be our present healing,
 And at length our great reward ;
 So a ransomed world shall ever
 Praise Thee, its redeeming Lord.

I 00 We sing the praise of Him Who died. L. M.

FIRST TUNE.

Sir JOSEPH BARNEY.

1. We sing the praise of Him Who died, Of Him Who died up - on the cross:

The sinner's hope let men deride: For this we count the world but loss. A - MEN.

- 2 Inscribed upon the cross we see
In shining letters, God is love:
He bears our sins upon the tree:
He brings us mercy from above.
- 3 The cross—it takes our guilt away,
It holds the fainting spirit up;
It cheers with hope the gloomy day,
And sweetens every bitter cup.

- 4 It makes the coward spirit brave,
And nerves the feeble arm for fight;
It takes its terror from the grave,
And gilds the bed of death with light.
- 5 The balm of life, the cure of woe,
The measure and the pledge of love,
The sinner's refuge here below,
The angels' theme in heaven above.

Now was she, that mother blessed
Of the sole-begotten One;

Pierced by anguish so amazing,
Born of woman, would not weep?
Who, on Christ's dear mother thinking,
Such a cup of sorrow drinking,
Would not share her sorrows deep?

4 For His people's sins chastised,
She beheld her Son despised,
Scourged, and crowned with thorns entwined;
Saw Him then from judgment taken,
And in death by all forsaken,
Till His spirit He resigned.

5 Jesu, may her deep devotion
Stir in me the same emotion,
Fount of love, Redeemer kind;
That my heart fresh ardor gaining,
And a purer love attaining,
May with Thee acceptance find.

Thy face we scan,
Bearing that cross for us,

Sunk on Thy breast

Rough wood Thy throne;
For us Thy blood is shed,
Us alone. | 15 Loud scoffs the dying thief,
Who mocks at Thee:
Can it, my Saviour, be
All for me? |
| 11 No pillow under Thee
To rest Thy head;
Only the splintered cross
Is Thy bed. | 16 Gazing, afar from Thee,
Silent and lone,
Stand those few weepers Thou
Callest Thine own. |

Thy side the spear;
No voice is nigh to say
Help is near. | 17 I see Thy title, Lord,

Though it is day:
Thy friends and kinsfolk stand
Far away. | 18 What, O my Saviour,
Here didst Thou see,

 Laud and praise undying.
- 3 Now the Queen of seasons, bright

 Welcomes in unwearied strains

 Nor the tomb's dark portal,
 Nor the watchers, nor the seal,
 Hold Thee as a mortal;
 But to-day amidst Thine own
 Thou didst stand, bestowing
 That Thy peace which evermore
 Passeth human knowing.

Preaching truth and doom to come,

But worship and adore,
Like her whom heaven's majesty
Came down to shadow o'er.
- 4 Meekly she bowed her head
To hear the gracious word,
Mary, the pure and lowly maid,
The favoured of the Lord.
- 5 Blessed shall be her name
In all the Church on earth,
Through whom that wondrous mercy came,
The incarnate Saviour's birth.

1. We praise Thy grace, O Sav - iour, That bear - eth with us long,

And ev - er out of weak - ness Thy ser - vants mak - eth strong. A-MEN.

- 2 The saint, who left his comrades,
And turned back from the fight,
Behold at last victorious
In Thy prevailing might!
- 3 From Thee, Lord, came the courage,
Once more to front the host:
Thy strength, most mighty Saviour,
In weakness shineth most.
- 4 Thy love Saint Mark hath numbered Among the blessed Four,
- And all the world rejoiceth
To learn his Gospel-lore.
- 5 O Lord, our human weakness
With pitying eye behold;
Uplift the fainting spirit,
And make the coward bold.
- 6 O Jesu, glorious Victor
O'er all the hosts of sin,
In us Thy strength make perfect,
In us the victory win.

3 The son of Consolation !

Such blessed name may bear !

The Lord of life shall own,
And as His priceless jewels
Shall set them round His throne.

RAPHAEL COURTEVILLE.

2 For him who left his father's side,
Nor lingered by the shore,
When, softer than the weltering tide,
Thy summons glided o'er;

Who climbed the mount with Thee,
And saw the glory round Thy Head,
One of Thy chosen three;

4 Who knelt beneath the olive shade,
Who drank Thy cup of pain,
And passed from Herod's flashing blade
To see Thy Face again.

Till we too change from grace to grace,
Gazing on that transfigured face.

3 Lord, it is good for us to be Here on the holy mount with Thee ;
When darkling in the depths of night,
When dazzled with excess of light,
We bow before the heavenly voice
That bids bewildered souls rejoice,
Though love wax cold, and faith be dim,
"This is My Son ; Oh, hear ye Him !"

7.6. D.

F. WEBER.

[Insert here the stanza for the special Saint's Day to be celebrated.]

ST. ANDREW.

- 2 Praise, Lord, for Thine apostle, the first to welcome Thee,
The first to lead his brother, the very Christ to see.

With hearts for Thee made ready, watch we throughout the year,
Forward to lead our brethren to own Thine Advent near.

ST. THOMAS.

- 3 All praise for Thine apostle, whose short-lived doubts prove
Thy perfect twofold nature, the fullness of Thy love.

On all who wait Thy coming shed forth Thy peace, O Lord,
And grant us faith to know Thee, true Man, true God, adored.

ST. STEPHEN.

- 4 Praise for the first of martyrs, who saw Thee ready stand,
To aid in midst of torments, to plead at God's right hand.
Share we with him, if summoned by death our Lord to own,
On earth the faithful witness, in heaven the martyr crown.

ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST.

- 5 Praise for the loved disciple, exile on Patmos' shore;
Praise for the faithful record, he to Thy Godhead bore,

Praise for the mystic vision, through him to us revealed.
May we, in patience waiting, with Thine elect be sealed.

THE HOLY INNOCENTS.

- 6 Praise for Thine infant martyrs, by Thee with tenderest love
Called early from the warfare to share the rest above.
O Rachel! cease thy weeping: they rest from pains and cares.
Lord, grant us hearts as guileless, and crowns as bright as theirs.

THE CONVERSION OF ST. PAUL.

- 7 Praise for the light from heaven, praise for the voice of awe,
Praise for the glorious vision the persecutor saw.
Thee, Lord, for his conversion, we glorify to-day;
So lighten all our darkness with Thy true Spirit's ray.

ST. MATTHIAS.

Thy Church from false apostles for evermore defend,
And by Thy parting promise be with her to the end.

ST. MARK.

9 For him, O Lord, we praise Thee, the weak by grace made strong,
Whose labors and whose Gospel enrich our triumph-song.
May we in all our weakness find strength
from Thee supplied,
And all, as fruitful branches, in Thee,
the Vine, abide.

ST. PHILIP AND ST. JAMES.

10 All praise for Thine apostle, blest guide to Greek and Jew,
And him surnamed Thy brother; keep us Thy brethren true,
And grant us grace to know Thee, the Way, the Truth, the Life;
To wrestle with temptations till victors in the strife.

ST. BARNABAS.

11 The Son of Consolation, moved by Thy law of love,
Forsaking earthly treasures, sought riches from above.
As earth now teems with increase, let gifts of grace descend,
That Thy true consolations may through the world extend.

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST.

12 We praise Thee for the Baptist, forerunner of the Word,
Our true Elias, making a highway for the Lord.
Of prophets last and greatest, he saw
Thy dawning ray:
Make us the rather blessed, who love
Thy glorious day.

ST. PETER.

13 Praise for Thy great apostle, the eager and the bold;
Thrice falling, yet repentant, thrice charged to keep Thy Fold.
Lord, make Thy pastors faithful, to guard their flocks from ill,
And grant them dauntless courage, with humble, earnest will.

ST. JAMES.

14 For him, O Lord, we praise Thee, who,
slain by Herod's sword,
Drank of Thy cup of suffering, fulfilling
thus Thy word.
Curb we all vain impatience to read Thy veiled decree,
And count it joy to suffer, if so brought nearer Thee.

ST. BARTHOLOMEW.

15 All praise for Thine apostle, the faithful,
pure, and true,
Whom underneath the fig tree Thine eye
all-seeing knew.
Like him may we be guileless, true Israelites indeed,
That Thy abiding presence our longing souls may feed.

ST. MATTHEW.

16 Praise, Lord, for him whose Gospel Thy human life declared,
Who, worldly gains forsaking, Thy path
of suffering shared.
From all unrighteous mammon, oh, give us hearts set free,
That we, whate'er our calling, may rise and follow Thee.

ST. LUKE.

17 For that "beloved physician," all praise, whose Gospel shows
The healer of the nations, the sharer of our woes.
Thy wine and oil, O Saviour, on bruised hearts deign to pour,
And with true balm of Gilead anoint us evermore.

ST. SIMON AND ST. JUDE.

18 Praise, Lord, for Thine apostles, who sealed their faith to-day:
One love, one zeal impelled them to tread the sacred way.
May we with zeal as earnest the faith of Christ maintain,
And, bound in love as brethren, at length Thy rest attain.

GENERAL ENDING.

19 Apostles, prophets, martyrs, and all the sacred throng,
Who wear the spotless raiment, who raise the ceaseless song;
For these, passed on before us, Saviour,
we Thee adore,
And, walking in their footsteps, would serve Thee more and more.

20 Then praise we God the Father, and praise we God the Son,
And God the Holy Spirit, eternal Three in One;
Till all the ransomed number fall down
before the throne,
And honor, power, and glory ascribe to God alone.

1. Who are these like stars ap - pear-ing, These, be - fore God's throne who stand ?

Each a gold - en crown is wear - ing; Who are all this glo - rious band ?

Al - le - lu - ia! hark they sing, Prais - ing loud their heav - enly King. A-MEN.

2 Who are these of dazzling brightness,
These in God's own truth arrayed,
Clad in robes of purest whiteness,
Robes whose lustre ne'er shall fade,
Ne'er be touched by time's rude hand?
Whence comes all this glorious band?

4 These are they whose hearts were riven,
Sore with woe and anguish tried,
Who in prayer full oft have striven
With the God they glorified:
Now, their painful conflict o'er,
God has bid them weep no more.

3 These are they who have contended
For their Saviour's honor long,
Wrestling on till life was ended,
Following not the sinful throng:
These, who well the fight sustained,
Triumph by the Lamb have gained.

5 These, like priests, have watched and
Offering up to Christ their will, [waited,
Soul and body consecrated,
Day and night they serve Him still.
Now in God's most holy place,
Blest they stand before His face.

 Who prepared the way for Christ,
 King, apostle, saint, confessor,

 Sainly maiden, godly matron,
 Widows who have watched to prayer,
 Joined in holy concert, singing
 To the Lord of all, are there.

3 Marching with Thy cross, their banner,
 They have triumphed, following
 Thee, the Captain of salvation,
 Thee, their Saviour and their King.
 Gladly, Lord, with Thee they suffered;
 Gladly, Lord, with Thee they died;
 And by death to life immortal
 They were born and glorified.

Thou, Who dost give us daily bread,
Give us the Bread eternal.

3 We bear the burden of the day,
And often toil seems dreary ;
But labor ends with sunset ray,
And rest is for the weary ;

May we, the angel-reaping o'er,
Stand at the last accepted,
Christ's golden sheaves for evermore
To garners bright elected.

4 Oh, blessed is that land of God,
Where saints abide for ever ;
Where golden fields spread fair and broad,
Where flows the crystal river :
The strains of all its holy throng
With ours to-day are blending ;
Thrice blessed is that harvest-song
Which never hath an ending.

The Old Year

- 2 Before the cross, subdued we bow,
To Thee our prayers addressing;
Recounting all Thy mercies now,
And all our sins confessing;
Beseeching Thee, this coming year,
To hold us in Thy faith and fear,
And crown us with Thy blessing.
- 3 And, while we kneel, we lift our eyes
To dear ones gone before us,
Safe housed with Thee in Paradise,
Whose peace descendeth o'er us:
And beg of Thee, when life is past,
To re-unite us all, at last,
And to our lost restore us.
- 4 We gather up, in this brief hour,
The memory of Thy mercies:
Thy wondrous goodness, love, and power,
Our grateful song rehearses:
For Thou hast been our strength and stay,
In many a dark and dreary day
Of sorrow and reverses.
- 5 In many an hour, when fear and dread,
Like evil spells have bound us,
And clouds were gathering overhead,
Thy providence hath found us:
In many a night when waves ran high,
Thy gracious presence drawing nigh
Hath made all calm around us.
- 6 Then, O great God, in years to come,
Whatever fate betide us,
Right onward through our journey home
Be Thou at hand to guide us:
Nor leave us till, at close of life,
Safe from all perils, toil, and strife,
Heaven shall unfold and hide us.

2 A few more suns shall set
O'er these dark hills of time,
And we shall be where suns are not,
A far serener clime:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that blest day;
Oh, wash me in Thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.

3 A few more storms shall beat
On this wild rocky shore,
And we shall be where tempests cease,
And surges swell no more:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that calm day;
Oh, wash me in Thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.

4 A few more struggles here,
A few more partings o'er,
A few more toils, a few more tears,
And we shall weep no more:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that bright day;
Oh, wash me in Thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.

5 'Tis but a little while
And He shall come again,
Who died that we might live, Who lives
That we with Him may reign:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that glad day;
Oh, wash me in Thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.

The New Year

- 2 From glory unto glory! What great things He hath done,
What wonders He hath shown us, what triumphs He hath won!
From glory unto glory! What mighty blessings crown
The lives for which our Lord hath laid His own so freely down!
- 3 The fullness of His blessing encompasseth our way;
The fullness of His promises crowns every brightening day;
The fullness of His glory is beaming from above,
While more and more we learn to know the fullness of His love.
- 4 And closer yet and closer the golden bonds shall be,
Uniting all who love our Lord in pure sincerity;
And wider yet and wider shall the circling glory glow,
As more and more are taught of God that mighty love to know.
- 5 Oh, let our adoration for all that He hath done,
Peal out beyond the stars of God, while voice and life are one;
And let our consecration be real, deep, and true:
Oh, even now our hearts shall bow, and joyful vows renew.
- 6 Now onward, ever onward, from strength to strength we go,
While grace for grace abundantly shall from His fullness flow,
To glory's full fruition, from glory's foretaste here,
Until His very presence crown our happiest New Year.

 Rich banquet of His flesh and blood : In countless numbers let them come ;
 Thrice happy he who here partakes And gather from their Father's board
 That sacred stream, that heavenly food. The bread that lives beyond the tomb.

3 Oh, let Thy table honored be, 5 Nor let Thy spreading Gospel rest,
 And furnished well with joyful guests : Till through the world Thy truth has run ;
 And may each soul salvation see, Till with this bread all men be blest,

 Thy Father's right hand, here we cry;
 True Bridegroom of Thy spotless Bride,

 As Cana's water turned to wine,
 Its lost godlikeness is restored.

3 O Holy Ghost the Paraclete,
 Thee too we worship, God and Lord,
 And honor Thee, with praises meet,
 One with the Father and the Word.

Lord and Life-giver, hear our prayer,
 Come, sanctify, and bless, and guide,
 Strengthen, and shelter 'neath Thy care,
 The life of bridegroom and of bride.

4 O God Triune, Whom heaven's host
 Adores, with sweet and ceaseless song;
 O Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
 To whom all worship doth belong;
 Hear, in these echoes faint and dim
 Of chant and prayer and holy psalm,
 Their songs, the heavenly feast who hymn,
 The marriage supper of the Lamb.

250 Saints of God! the dawn is brightening. 8.7.8.7.4.7. Arr. by NOVELLO.

1. Saints of God! the dawn is brightening, To - ken of our com - ing Lord;
O'er the earth the field is whitening; Loud - er rings the Mas - ter's word:
Pray for reap - ers, Pray for reap - ers In the har - vest of the Lord! A-MEN.

2 Now, O Lord, fulfill Thy pleasure,
Breathe upon Thy chosen band,
And, with Pentecostal measure,
Send forth reapers o'er our land;
Faithful reapers
Gathering sheaves for Thy right hand.

3 Broad the shadow of our nation,
Eager millions hither roam;
Lo! they wait for Thy salvation;

Come, Lord Jesus! quickly come!
By Thy Spirit
Bring Thy ransomed people home.

4 Soon shall end the time of weeping,
Soon the reaping time will come;
Heaven and earth together keeping
God's eternal Harvest Home.
Saints and angels
Shout the world's great Harvest Home.

That fallen man might live thereby, Since Thou, O Lord, for all hast died;
Oh, hear us, for to Thee we cry, Then teach us, whatsoe'er betide,
In hope, O Lord, to Thee. To love them all in Thee.

3 Teach us the lesson Thou hast taught, 5 In sickness, sorrow, want, or care,
To feel for those Thy blood hath bought, Whate'er it be, 'tis ours to share;
That every word, and deed, and thought May we, where help is needed, there
May work a work for Thee. Give help as unto Thee.

6 And may Thy Holy Spirit move
All those who live, to live in love,
Till Thou shalt greet in heaven above
All those who give to Thee.

And minister through them to Thee. Bring back the wanderer nearer God!

3 O loving Saviour, Thou canst cure The pains and woes Thou didst endure;
For all who need, Physician great, Thy healing balm we supplicate.
5 Oh, heal the bruised heart within! Oh, save our souls all sick with sin!
Give life and health in bounteous store, That we may praise Thee evermore!

O Thou, Who madest land and sea. 8 s.

HENRY C. LOCKWOOD.

2 Great God, Who with a Father's love
Dost watch o'er all created things,
And gatherest all, below, above,
Beneath the shadow of Thy wings;
Protect, we pray Thee, now, and bless
Thy children who are fatherless.

3 Thou hearest still the eagle's cry,
And notest e'en a sparrow's fall,
Thy listening ear doth heed on high,
And hearken to the raven's call;
Then, heavenly Father, hear and bless
Thy children who are fatherless.

4 Come, heavenly Father, come to-day,
For we Thy children come to Thee,
And Thou wilt never say us, nay,
If come we in humility;
New-born in Thee, O Father, bless
Thy children who are fatherless.

5 Cast forth upon the barren strand
Of this lone world, to Thee we fly;
In faith and hope, we fain would stand
Beneath Thy sheltering arm for aye;
Stretch forth Thy hand, and pitying bless
Thy children who are fatherless.

6 And may we all with joyful mind
Our hearts as living offerings bring,
The first-fruits of our life, to find
A Father in our heavenly King;
And learn in life and death to bless
Thee, "Father of the fatherless."

We then were made Thy chil - dren, And pledged our ear - liest vow ; A-MEN.

2 We then were sealed and hallowed
By Thy life-giving word ;

And made the purchase sure ;
His are we : may He keep us
Sober, and chaste, and pure.

3 Conformed to His own likeness
May we so live and die,
That in the grave our bodies
In holy peace may lie ;

And at the resurrection
Forth from those graves may spring,
Like to the glorious body
Of Christ, our Lord and King.

4 The pure in heart are blessed,
For they shall see the Lord
Forever and forever
By seraphim adored ;
And they shall drink the pleasures,
Such as no tongue can tell,

And life's eternal well.

WM. KNAPP.

2 A messenger from God was there,
To break his chain and bid him rise;
And lo! the saint, as free as air,
Walked forth beneath the open skies.

3 Chains yet more strong and cruel bind
The victims of that deadly thirst
Which drowns the soul, and from the mind
Blots the bright image stamped at first.

4 O God of love and mercy, deign
To look on those with pitying eye
Who struggle with that fatal chain,
And send them succor from on high!

5 Send down, in its resistless might,
Thy gracious Spirit, we implore,
And lead the captive forth to light,
A rescued soul, a slave no more!

Anoint them with the spirit of Thy Son:
Theirs, not a jewelled crown, a blood stained sword;
Theirs, by sweet love, for Christ a kingdom won.

Forth may they go to tell all realms Thy grace;
Inspired of Thee, may they count all but loss,
And stand at last with joy before Thy face.

O truth, O faith enrich our urgent time!
Lord Jesus Christ, again with us sojourn:
A weary world awaits Thy reign sublime!

 Each holy day Thy blessings pour.

Laying of a Corner-Stone

- 4 Here may we gain from heaven
The grace which we implore;
And may that grace, once given,
Be with us evermore;
Until that day when all the blest
To endless rest are called away.

| 2 Thee, highest heaven cannot contain,
Great Lord of earth, and sky, and sea!
Yet enter in, and bless the fane
Adoring hands have reared for Thee. | 4 For welcome to the babe new-born,
For strengthening hands on bended head,
For blessings on the marriage morn,
And sweet words whispered o'er the dead; |
| 3 [*Unworthy gift and touched with fears,
And memories of our loved at rest;
Draw nigh, O Lord, and dry our tears,
And be Thy presence here confest.] | 5 For food divine to souls sufficed,
For words that warn, for prayers that Arise and enter in, O Christ! [press,
And with Thy presence all things bless. |

- 6 So praise to Thy great Name shall rise
Up from these walls, this sacred floor,
Who made, Who saves, Who sanctifies,
Forever and for evermore.

1. Je - su ! wher - e'er Thy peo - ple meet, There they be - hold Thy mer - cy - seat ;
Where'er they seek Thee, Thou art found, And ev' - ry place is hallowed ground. A-MEN.

2 And since within no walls confined,
Thou dwellest in the humble mind :
Let all within Thy house who come,
Departing, take Thee to their home.

3 Yet everywhere Thou guid'st Thine own
To raise for Thee an earthly throne ;
And where Thy Name Thou dost record,
There Thou wilt come and bless them, Lord !

4 [*Behold, at Thy commanding word,
We stretch the curtain and the cord ;
Come Thou and fill this wider space,
And bless us with a large increase.]

5 Great Shepherd of Thy chosen few,
Thy former mercies here renew ;
And here to wayward hearts proclaim
The sweetness of Thy saving Name !

* For enlargement of the Church.

6 Here may we prove the might of prayer,
To strengthen faith and sweeten care :
To teach our faint desires to rise,
And bring all heaven before our eyes !

7 Here to the babe new-born on earth,
Grant Thou the newer, better birth ;
By water and the Holy Ghost
Restoring all that Adam lost.

8 Here to the weary, hungry soul,
Give Thou the gift that maketh whole ;
The bread that is Christ's flesh, for food,
The wine that is the Saviour's blood.

9 Lord, we are few, but Thou art near ;
Nor short Thine arm, nor deaf Thine ear ;
Oh, rend the heavens, come quickly down,
And make a thousand hearts Thine own !

L. M.

1 Come, Jesus, from the sapphire throne,
Where Thy redeemed behold Thy face,
Enter this temple, now Thine own,
And let Thy glory fill the place.

2 We praise Thee that to-day we see
Its sacred walls before Thee stand ;
'Tis Thine for us : 'tis ours for Thee ;
Reared by Thy kind assisting hand.

3 Oft as returns the day of rest,
Let heartfelt worship here ascend ;
With Thine own joy fill every breast,
With Thine own power Thy word attend.

4 Here in the dark and sorrowing day,
Bid Thou the throbbing heart be still ;
Oh, wipe the mourner's tears away,
And give new strength to meet Thy will.

5 When round this Board Thine own shall
And keep the feast of dying love, [meet,
Be our communion ever sweet
With Thee, and with Thy Church above.

6 Come, faithful Shepherd, feed Thy sheep ;
In Thine own arms the lambs enfold ;
Give help to climb the heavenward steep,
Till Thy full glory we behold.

Lift the strain of high thanksgiving!

8.7.D.

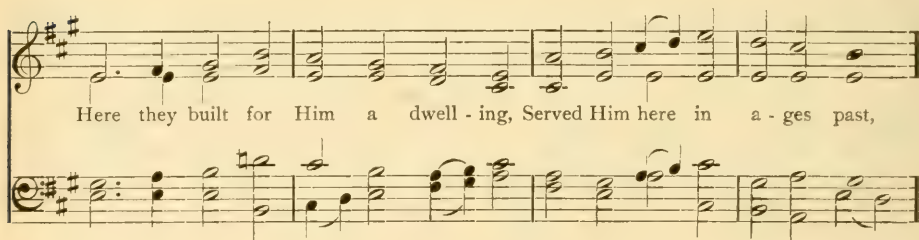

HENRY SMART.

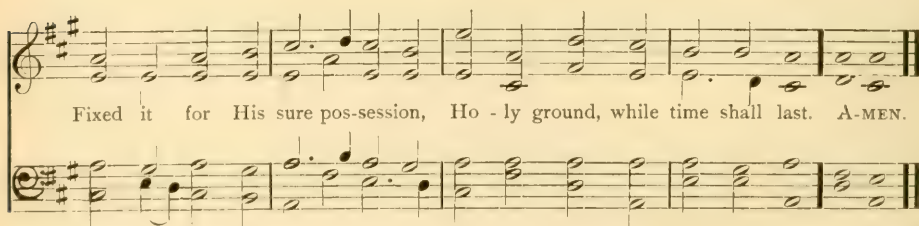

1. Lift the strain of high thanksgiving! Tread with songs the hal-lowed way!

Praise our fa-thers' God, for mer-cies New to us their sons to-day;

Here they built for Him a dwell-ing, Served Him here in a-ges past,

Fixed it for His sure pos-session, Ho-ly ground, while time shall last. A-MEN.

- 2 When the years had wrought their changes, 3 Entering then Thy gates with praises,
 He, our own unchanging God, Lord, be ours Thine Israel's prayer:
 Thought on this His habitation, "Rise into Thy place of resting, Looked on His decayed abode; Show Thy promised presence there!"
 Heard our prayers, and helped our counsels, Let the gracious word be spoken
 Blessed the silver and the gold, Here, as once on Sion's height,
 Till once more His house is standing "This shall be My rest forever, Firm and stately as of old. This My dwelling of delight."

Restoration of a Church

- 4 Fill this latter house with glory
 Greater than the former knew;
 Clothe with righteousness its priesthood,
 Guide us all to reverence true;
 Let Thy Holy One's anointing
 Here its sevenfold blessing shed;
 Spread for us the heavenly banquet,
 Satisfy Thy poor with bread.
- 5 Praise to Thee, almighty Father,
 Praise to Thee, eternal Son,
 Praise to Thee, all-quickenng Spirit,
 Ever blessed Three in One:
 Threefold Power and Grace and Wisdom,
 Molding out of sinful clay,
 Living stones for that true temple
 Which shall never know decay.

As a gift beneath His throne ;

While the melody shall bid them
Love the Church where all are blest.

4 Earth's rejoicings, bright and holy,
Shall be signed with joyful peal ;
And the music from the steeple
Shall our faith and love reveal.

5 They who languish, sick and lonely,
Shall be minded, as they sigh,
Of the Church's one communion,
God's true home and family.

6 When the spirits of the faithful
Pass away to light and peace ;
Solemn tones shall then forewarn us,
Soon our life and work must cease.

Lift our hearts through joy and sorrow

Assembled in Thy sacred Name,
Where we Thy parting promise claim:
Hosanna, Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

5 So in the last and dreadful day,
When earth and heaven shall melt away,
Thy flock, redeemed from sinful stain,
Shall swell the sound of praise again.
Hosanna, Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

Thou art coming, O my Saviour!

FIRST TUNE.

1. Thou art com - ing, O my Sav - iour! Thou art com - ing, O my King!

In Thy beau - ty all - re - splendent, In Thy glo - ry all - tran - scen - dent;

Well may we re - joice and sing; Coming: in the opening east Her - ald bright-ness slowly swells; Coming: O Thou glorious Priest! Hear we not Thy golden bells? A-MEN.

2 Thou art coming, Thou art coming;

We shall meet Thee on Thy way;
We shall see Thee, we shall know Thee,
We shall bless Thee, we shall show Thee
All our hearts could never say;
What an anthem that will be,
Music rapturously sweet,
Pouring out our love to Thee
At Thine own all-glorious feet.

3 Thou art coming; at Thy table

We are witnesses for this;
While remembering hearts Thou meetest
In communion clearest, sweetest,
Earnest of our coming bliss;
Showing not Thy death alone,
And Thy love exceeding great,
But Thy coming, and Thy throne,
All for which we long and wait.

4 Thou art coming; we are waiting

With a hope that cannot fail;
Asking not the day or hour,
Resting on Thy word of power,
Anchored safe within the veil.
Time appointed may be long,
But the vision must be sure;
Certainty shall make us strong,
Joyful patience can endure.

5 Oh, the joy to see Thee reigning,
Thee, our own beloved Lord!

Every tongue Thy Name confessing,
Worship, honor, glory, blessing
Brought to Thee with one accord;
Thee, our Master, and our Friend,
Vindicated and enthroned;
Unto earth's remotest end
Glorified, adored, and owned!

Jesus came, the heavens adoring.

8.7.

I. Je - sus came, the heavens a - dor - ing, Came with peace from realms on high;
 Je - sus came for man's re - demption, Low - ly came on earth to die;
 Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! Came in deep hu - mil - i - ty. A-MEN.

2 Jesus comes again in mercy,
 When our hearts are bowed with care;
 Jesus comes again in answer
 To an earnest, heart-felt prayer;
 Alleluia! Alleluia!
 Comes to save us from despair.

4 Jesus comes in joy and sorrow,
 Shares alike our hopes and fears;
 Jesus comes, whate'er befalls us,
 Glads our hearts, and dries our tears;
 Alleluia! Alleluia!
 Cheering e'en our failing years.

3 Jesus comes to hearts rejoicing,
 Bringing news of sins forgiven;
 Jesus comes in sounds of gladness,
 Leading souls redeemed to heaven;
 Alleluia! Alleluia!
 Now the gate of death is riven.

5 Jesus comes on clouds triumphant,
 When the heavens shall pass away;
 Jesus comes again in glory;
 Let us then our homage pay,
 Alleluia! ever singing,
 Till the dawn of endless day.

There is room in my heart for Thee.

3 The foxes found rest, and the birds had their nest

In the shade of the forest tree;

- 4 Thou camest, O Lord, with the living word,
That should set Thy people free ;
But with mocking scorn, and with crown of thorn,
They bore Thee to Calvary.
Oh, come to my heart, Lord Jesus !
Thy cross is my only plea.
- 5 When the heavens shall ring, and the angels sing
At Thy coming to victory,
Let Thy voice call me home, saying, "Yet there is room,
There is room at My side for Thee."
And my heart shall rejoice, Lord Jesus,
When Thou comest and callest for me.

But with ho - ly ex - ul - ta - tion We may sing a - loud to - day. A-MEN.

2 Jesus is the Name we treasure ;
Name beyond what words can tell ;
Name of gladness, Name of pleasure,
Ear and heart delighting well ;
Name of sweetness, passing measure,
Saving us from sin and hell.

4 'Tis the Name that whoso preacheth
Speaks like music to the ear ;
Who in prayer this Name beseecheth
Sweetest comfort findeth near ;
Who its perfect wisdom reacheth,
Heavenly joy possesseth here.

3 'Tis the Name for adoration,
Name for songs of victory,
Name for holy meditation
In this vale of misery,
Name for joyful veneration
By the citizens on high.

5 Therefore we in love adoring,
This most blessed Name revere ;
Holy Jesus, Thee imploring
So to write it in us here,
That hereafter, heavenward soaring,
We may sing with angels there.

To those who suffer wrong,

3 He shall come down like showers

And love, joy, hope, like flowers,
Spring in His path to birth:
Before Him on the mountains
Shall peace, the herald, go;
And righteousness in fountains
From hill to valley flow.

4 Kings shall bow down before Him,
And gold and incense bring;
All nations shall adore Him,
His praise all people sing;
To Him shall prayer unceasing
And daily vows ascend;
His kingdom still increasing,
A kingdom without end.

5 O'er every foe victorious,
He on His throne shall rest;
From age to age more glorious,
All-blessing and all-blest:
The tide of time shall never
His covenant remove;
His Name shall stand forever,
His changeless Name of Love.

4 Cherubim and seraphim

Veil their faces with their wings ;

Eyes of angels are too dim

To behold the King of kings,

While they sing eternally

To the blessèd Trinity.

5 Thee, apostles, prophets, Thee,

Thee, the noble martyr band,

Praise with solemn jubilee,

Thee, the Church in every land ;

Singing everlastingly,

To the blessèd Trinity.

6 Alleluia ! Lord, to Thee,

Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,

Three in One, and One in Three,

Join we with the heavenly host,

Singing everlastingly

To the blessèd Trinity.

- 2 One family, we dwell in Him,
One Church, above, beneath;
Though now divided by the stream,

There pass some spirits blest;
While others to the margin come,
Waiting their call to rest.
- 3 One army of the living God,
To His command we bow;
Part of the host have crossed the flood,
And part are crossing now.
- 5 Jesus, be Thou our constant guide;
Then, when the word is given,
Bid Jordan's narrow stream divide,
And bring us safe to heaven.

Orphans no longer fatherless,

Fill up the roll of Thine elect,
Then take Thy power and reign!

What are the peace and the joy that they own?
Oh, that the blest ones, who in it have share,
All that they feel could as fully declare!
- 3 Truly Jerusalem name we that shore,
Vision of peace, that brings joy evermore;
Wish and fulfilment can severd be ne'er,
Nor the thing prayed for come short of the prayer.
- 4 There, where no troubles distraction can bring,
We the sweet anthems of Sion shall sing;
While for Thy grace, Lord, their voices of praise
Thy blessed people eternally raise.
- 5 There dawns no Sabbath, no Sabbath is o'er,
Those Sabbath-keepers have one evermore;
One and unending is that triumph-song
Which to the angels and us shall belong.
- 6 Now, in the meanwhile, with hearts raised on high,
We for that country must yearn and must sigh;
Seeking Jerusalem, dear native land,
Through our long exile on Babylon's strand.

Of Whom, and in Whom, and through Whom are all;
Of Whom, the Father; and in Whom, the Son;
Through Whom, the Spirit, with Them ever One.

I heard a sound of voices.

P. M.

ARTHUR HENRY BROWN.

1. I heard a sound of voices A-round the great white throne, With harpers harping on their harps To Him that sat there-on: "Sal-va-tion, glo-ry, hon-or!" I heard the song a-rise, As thro' the courts of heav'n it rolled In wondrous harmonies. A-MEN.

- 2 From every clime and kindred,
And nations from afar,
As serried ranks returning home
In triumph from a war,
I heard the saints upraising,
The myriad hosts among,
In praise of Him Who died and lives,
Their one glad triumph-song.
- 3 I saw the holy city,
The New Jerusalem,
Come down from heaven, a bride adorned
With jewelled diadem;
The flood of crystal waters
Flowed down the golden street;
And nations brought their honors there,
And laid them at her feet.
- 4 And there no sun was needed,
Nor moon to shine by night,
God's glory did enlighten all,
The Lamb Himself, the light;

- And there His servants serve Him,
And, life's long battle o'er,
Enthroned with Him, their Saviour, King,
They reign for evermore.
- 5 O great and glorious vision!
The Lamb upon His throne;
O wondrous sight for man to see!
The Saviour with His own:
To drink the living waters
And stand upon the shore,
Where neither sorrow, sin, nor death
Shall ever enter more.
- 6 O Lamb of God Who reignest!
Thou Bright and Morning Star,
Whose glory lightens that new earth
Which now we see from far!
O worthy Judge eternal!
When Thou dost bid us come,
Then open wide the gates of pearl,
And call Thy servants home.

Aside this sinful dust,
And rise, on strong exulting wing,
To live among the just.

3 It is not death to bear
The wretch that sets us free
From dungeon chain, to breathe the air

Like Thee, they conquer in the strife,
To reign with Thee on high.

1. Je - su, still lead on, Till our rest be won ;

And, although the way be cheer-less, We will fol - low calm and fear-less ;

Guide us by Thy hand, To our Fa - ther - land. A-MEN.

2 If the way be drear,
If the foe be near,
Let not faithless fears o'ertake us,
Let not faith and hope forsake us ;

From a long-felt grief :
When temptations come alluring,
Make us patient and enduring ;
Show us that bright shore
Where we weep no more.

4 Jesu, still lead on,

Heavenly Leader, still direct us,
Still support, console, protect us,
Till we safely stand
In our Fatherland.

Blindly we stumble when we walk alone,
Involved in shadows of a darksome night,
Only with Thee we journey safely on.

However rough and steep the path may be,
Through joy or sorrow, as Thou deemest best,
Until our lives are perfected in Thee.

O Light, Whose beams illumine all.

8 s.

W. H. MONK, Mus. Doc.

The musical score is written for a four-part vocal choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and piano accompaniment. It consists of three systems of staves. The first system contains the first line of the hymn, the second system contains the second line, and the third system contains the third line. The music is in the key of D major (indicated by two sharps) and common time (C). The lyrics are printed below the vocal staves.

1. O Light, Whose beams il - lu - mine all From twi - light dawn to per - fect day,
Shine Thou be - fore the shad - ows fall, That lead our wandering feet a - stray :
At morn and eve Thy ra - diance pour, That youth may love, and age a - dore. A - MEN.

- 2 O Way, through Whom our souls draw near
To yon eternal home of peace,
Where perfect love shall cast out fear,
And earth's vain toil and wandering cease ;
In strength or weakness may we see
Our heavenward path, O Lord, through Thee.
- 3 O Truth, before Whose shrine we bow,
Thou priceless pearl for all who seek,
To Thee our earliest strength we vow ;
Thy love will bless the pure and meek ;
When dreams or mists beguile our sight,
Turn Thou our darkness into light.
- 4 O Life, the well that ever flows
To slake the thirst of those that faint,
Thy power to bless, what seraph knows ?
Thy joy supreme, what words can paint ?
In earth's last hour of fleeting breath
Be Thou our conqueror over death.
- 5 O Light, O Way, O Truth, O Life,
O Jesus, born mankind to save,
Give Thou Thy peace in deadliest strife ;
Shed Thou Thy calm on stormiest wave ;
Be Thou our hope, our joy, our dread,
Lord of the living and the dead.

When morning gilds the skies.

6 s.

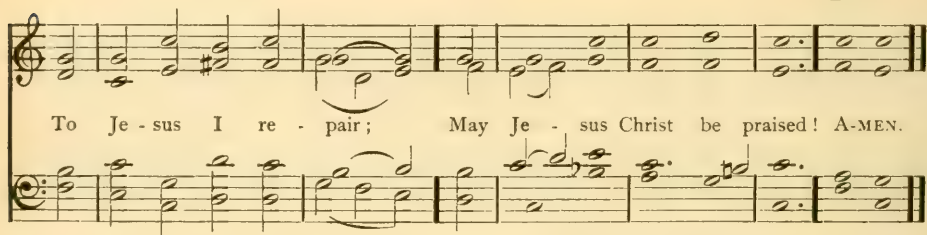

Sir JOSEPH BARNBY.

1. When morn - ing gilds the skies, My heart a - wak - ing cries,

May Je - sus Christ be praised! A - like at work and prayer

To Je - sus I re - pair; May Je - sus Christ be praised! A-MEN.

2 When'er the sweet church bell
Peals over hill and dell,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Oh, hark to what it sings,
As joyously it rings,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

3 My tongue shall never tire
Of chanting with the choir,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
This song of sacred joy,
It never seems to cloy,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

4 When sleep her balm denies,
My silent spirit sighs,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
When evil thoughts molest,
With this I shield my breast,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

5 Does sadness fill my mind?
A solace here I find,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

Or fades my earthly bliss?
My comfort still is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

6 The night becomes as day,
When from the heart we say,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
The powers of darkness fear,
When this sweet chant they hear,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

7 In heaven's eternal bliss
The loveliest strain is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Let earth, and sea, and sky
From depth to height reply,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

8 Be this, while life is mine,
My canticle divine,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Be this the eternal song
Through ages all along,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

- 2 Thou art our holy Lord,
The all-subduing Word,
Healer of strife :
Thou didst Thyself abase,
That from sin's deep disgrace
Thou mightest save our race,
And give us life.

Thou hast prepared the feast
Of heavenly love ;
While in our mortal pain
None calls on Thee in vain ;
Help Thou dost not disdain,
Help from above.

Our shepherd and our pride,
Our staff and song :
Jesus, Thou Christ of God,
By Thy perennial word
Lead us where Thou hast trod,
Make our faith strong.

Sound we Thy praises high,
And joyful sing.
Let all the holy throng
Who to Thy Church belong,

Sun and shield alike Thou art;
Guide and guard my erring heart.
Grace and glory flow from Thee;

The Church's one foundation.

7.6.D.

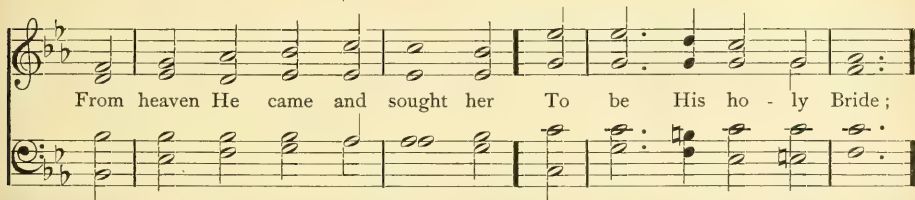

DR. S. S. WESLEY.

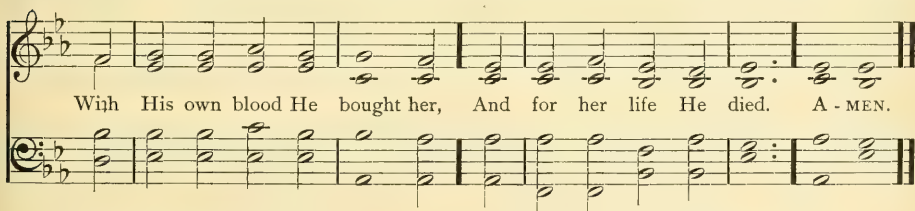

1. The Church's one foun - da - tion Is Je - sus Christ her Lord ;

She is His new cre - a - tion By wa - ter and the word :

From heaven He came and sought her To be His ho - ly Bride ;

With His own blood He bought her, And for her life He died. A - MEN.

2 Elect from every nation,
Yet one o'er all the earth,
Her charter of salvation,
One Lord, one Faith, one Birth ;
One holy Name she blesses,
Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses,
With every grace endued.

3 Though with a scornful wonder
Men see her sore oppress,
By schisms rent asunder,
By heresies distrest ;
Yet saints their watch are keeping,
Their cry goes up "How long?"
And soon the night of weeping
Shall be the morn of song.

4 'Mid toil and tribulation,
And tumult of her war
She waits the consummation
Of peace for evermore ;
Till with the vision glorious
Her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious
Shall be the Church at rest.

5 Yet she on earth hath union
With God the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won :
O happy ones and holy !
Lord, give us grace that we
Like them, the meek and lowly,
On high may dwell with Thee.

2 The world can never give
The bliss for which we sigh;
'Tis not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die.

4 There is a death, whose pang
Outlasts the fleeting breath;
Oh, what eternal horrors hang
Around the second death!

3 Beyond this vale of tears
There is a life above,
Unmeasured by the flight of years,
And all that life is love.

5 Lord God of truth and grace,
Teach us that death to shun,
Lest we be banished from Thy face,
For evermore undone.

6 Here would we end our quest:
Alone are found in Thee
The life of perfect love, the rest

3 So He tasted death for all men,

Prince of life among the dead;

Onward, with the Cross our aid!

1. Forward! be our watch-word, Steps and voices joined; Seek the things be-fore us,
 Not a look be-hind: Burns the fie-ry pil-lar At our ar-my's head;
 Who shall dream of shrinking, By our Cap-tain led? Forward thro' the des-ert,
 Through the toil and fight! Jordan flows be-fore us; Si-on beams with light. A-MEN.

2 Glories upon glories
 Hath our God prepared,
 By the souls that love Him
 One day to be shared;
 Eye hath not beheld them,
 Ear hath never heard;
 Nor of these hath uttered
 Thought or speech a word;
 Forward! marching eastward
 Where the heaven is bright,
 Till the veil be lifted,
 Till our faith be sight.

3 Far o'er yon horizon
 Rise the city towers,
 Where our God abideth;
 That fair home is ours:
 Flash the streets with jasper,
 Shine the gates with gold;

Flows the gladdening river
 Shedding joys untold.
 Thither, onward thither,
 In the Spirit's might!
 Pilgrims to your country,
 Forward into light!

4 To the eternal Father
 Loudest anthems raise:
 To the Son and Spirit
 Echo songs of praise:
 To the Lord of glory,
 Blessed Three in One,
 Be by men and angels
 Endless honor done.
 Weak are earthly praises,
 Dull the songs of night:
 Forward into triumph!
 Forward into light!

Hear us, Holy Spirit.

3 Source of meekness, love, and peace,
Patience, pureness, faith's increase,
Hope and joy that cannot cease;
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

10 All Thy sevenfold gifts bestow,

Gifts of strength to meet the foe;
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

4 Spirit guiding us aright,
Spirit making darkness light,
Spirit of resistless might;
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

11 All our evil passions kill,

Hear us, Holy Spirit.

Hear us, Holy Spirit.

13 Come to strengthen all the weak,

Hear us, Holy Spirit.

7 Thou Whose grace the Church doth fill,

Hear us, Holy Spirit.

14 Come to aid the souls who yearn

And with deeper love to burn;
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

Warn us when we go astray,
Plead within us when we pray;
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

9 Thou by Whom our souls are fed
With the true and living Bread,

Come, and live within our heart;

We beseech Thee, hear us. |

For the glad, bright spirits

Throned above the sky,

4 For Thy faithful servants
Who have entered in ;
For Thy fearless soldiers
Who have conquered sin ;
For the countless legions
Who have followed Thee,
Heedless of the danger,

Throned above the sky,

5 When the shadows lengthen,
Show us, Lord, Thy way ;
Through the darkness lead us
To the heavenly day.
When our course is finished,
Ended all the strife,
Grant us with the faithful,

In lowly home like Thee.

3 O Jesus, we would praise Thee,

Oh, give that best adornment
That Christian child can wear,
The meek and quiet spirit
Which shone in Thee so fair !

4 O Lord, with voices lifted
We sing our songs of praise ;

2 He came down to earth from heaven,
Who is God and Lord of all,
And His shelter was a stable,
And His cradle was a stall;
With the poor, and mean, and lowly,
Lived on earth our Saviour holy.

4 For He is our childhood's pattern;
Day by day like us He grew;
He was little, weak and helpless,
Tears and smiles like us He knew;
And He feeleth for our sadness,
And He shareth in our gladness.

3 And, through all His wondrous childhood,
He would honor and obey,
Love, and watch the lowly maiden
In whose gentle arms He lay;
Christian children all must be Mild, obedient, good as He.

5 And our eyes at last shall see Him,
Through His own redeeming love;
For that child so dear and gentle
Is our Lord in heaven above;
And He leads His children on
To the place where He is gone.

6 Not in that poor lowly stable,
With the oxen standing by,
We shall see Him; but in heaven,
Set at God's right hand on high;
When like stars His children crowned,
All in white shall wait around.

Guide them, lead them, go before them,
Give them peace, and joy, and love:

Hosanna to Jesus we'll sing.

And many dear children shall be with Him there,

What may we do for Jesus' sake?
- 3 Oh, day by day each Christian child
Has much to do, without, within;
A death to die for Jesus' sake,
A weary war to wage with sin.

The thoughts of pride and anger rise,
When bitter words are on our tongues,
And tears of passion in our eyes;
- 5 Then we may stay the angry blow,
Then we may check the hasty word,
Give gentle answers back again,
And fight a battle for our Lord.

Light in our dwellings we may make,
Bid kind good-humor brighten there,
And do all still for Jesus' sake.

His little work of love and praise,

2 Stand up, stand up, for Jesus!
 The trumpet call obey!
 Forth to the mighty conflict
 In this His glorious day!
 Ye that are men now serve Him
 Against unnumbered foes!
 Let courage rise with danger,
 And strength to strength oppose.

3 Stand up, stand up, for Jesus!
 Stand in His strength alone!
 The arm of flesh will fail you,
 Ye dare not trust your own:
 Put on the gospel armor,
 And watching unto prayer,
 When duty calls, or danger,
 Be never wanting there!

4 Stand up, stand up, for Jesus !

The strife will not be long :

This day, the noise of battle ;

The next, the victor's song.

To him that overcometh,

A crown of life shall be ;

He with the King of glory

Shall reign eternally.

Work when the day grows bright - er, Work in the glow - ing sun;

Work, for the night is com - ing, When man's work is done. A - MEN.

- 3 Work, for the night is coming,
Under the sunset skies;
While their bright tints are glowing,
Work, for daylight flies:
Work, till the last beam fadeth,
Fadeth to shine no more:

When man's work is o'er.

Go, labor on! spend and be spent!

1. Go, la - bor on! spend and be spent! Thy joy to do the Fa - ther's will;

It is the way the Master went; Should not the ser-vant tread it still? A-MEN.

- 2 Go, labor on! 'tis not for naught;
Thine earthly loss is heavenly gain;
Men heed thee, love thee, praise thee not;
The Master praises: what are men?
- 4 Go, labor on, while it is day!
The world's dark night is hastening on:
Speed, speed thy work! cast sloth away!
It is not thus that souls are won.
- 3 Go, labor on! enough, while here,
If He shall praise thee, if He deign
The willing heart to mark and cheer:
No toil for Him shall be in vain.
- 5 Toil on! faint not! keep watch, and pray!
Be wise the erring soul to win!
Go forth into the world's highway!
Compel the wanderer to come in!

- 6 Toil on, and in thy toil rejoice!
For toil comes rest, for exile home;
Soon shalt thou hear the Bridegroom's voice,
The midnight peal, "Behold, I come!"

2 Fierce is our subtle foeman :
The forces at his hand,
With woes that none can number,
Despoil the pleasant land ;
All they who war against them,
In strife so keen and long,
Must in their Saviour's armor
Be stronger than the strong.

3 So hast Thou wrought among us
The great things that we see :
For things that are we thank Thee,
And for the things to be :
For bright Hope is uplifting
Faint hands and feeble knees,
To strive beneath Thy blessing
For greater things than these.

4 Lead on, O Love and Mercy,

Till all who prayed and struggled
To set their brethren free,
In triumph, meet to praise Thee,

3 To-day our Father calls us,
His Holy Spirit waits ;
His blessed angels gather
Around the heavenly gates :

No question will be asked us
How often we have come ;
Although we oft have wandered,
It is our Father's home.

4 Oh, all-embracing mercy !
Oh, ever-open door !
What shall we do without Thee
When heart and eyes run o'er ?
When all things seem against us,
To drive us to despair,
We know one gate is open,
One ear will hear our prayer.

Think how my heart to sin is prone,

5 Oh, think not of my doubts and fears,

3 Dear, dying Lamb, Thy precious blood

Till all the ransomed Church of God
Be save to sin no more.

4 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream

Redeeming love has been my theme,

When this poor, lisping, stammering tongue
Lies silent in the grave.

2 I lay my wants on Jesus:
All fullness dwells in Him;
He heals all my diseases,
He doth my soul redeem.
I lay my griefs on Jesus,
My burdens and my cares;
He from them all releases;
He all my sorrows shares.

3 I rest my soul on Jesus,
This weary soul of mine;
His right hand me embraces,
I on His breast recline.

I love the Name of Jesus,
Emmanuel, Christ, the Lord;
Like fragrance on the breezes,
His Name abroad is poured.

4 I long to be like Jesus,
Meek, loving, lowly, mild;
I long to be like Jesus,
The Father's holy Child;
I long to be with Jesus,
Amid the heavenly throng;
To sing with saints His praises,
To learn the angels' song.

4 For Thou Who knowest, Lord, how soon
Our weak heart clings,
Hast given us joys, tender and true,
Yet all with wings;
So that we see, gleaming on high,
Diviner things.

5 I thank Thee, Lord, that Thou hast kept
The best in store;
We have enough, yet not too much
To long for more:

1. O Love di - vine, that stooped to share Our sharp-est pang, our bit - terest tear!

On Thee we cast each earth-born care; We smile at pain while thou art near. A-MEN.

For the Sick and Afflicted

2 Though long the weary way we tread,
And sorrow crown each lingering year,
No path we shun, no darkness dread,
Our hearts still whispering, Thou art near.

3 When drooping pleasure turns to grief,
And trembling faith is changed to fear,

The murmuring wind, the quivering leaf,
Shall softly tell us, Thou art near.

4 On Thee we rest our burdening woe,
O Love divine, forever dear!
Content to suffer, while we know,
Living and dying, Thou art near.

Though faint, yet pursuing.

Rev. J. B. DYKES, Mus. Doc.

I. Though faint, yet pur - su - ing, we go on our way; The Lord is our lead - er, His Word is our stay; Though suffering, and sor - row, and tri - al be near, The Lord is our re - fuge, and whom can we fear? A - MEN.

- 2 He raiseth the fallen, He cheereth the faint;
The weak and oppressed, He will hear their complaint;
The way may be weary, and thorny the road,
But how can we falter? Our help is in God!
- 3 And to His green pastures our footsteps He leads;
His flock in the desert, how kindly He feeds!
The lambs in His bosom He tenderly bears,
And brings back the wanderers safe from the snares.
- 4 Though clouds may surround us, our God is our light;
Though storms rage around us, our God is our might;
So faint, yet pursuing, still onward we come;
The Lord is our leader, and heaven is our home!

Whereon our feet were set by sovereign grace:
Nor life nor death, with all their agitation,
Can thence remove us, if we see His face.
- 3 We would see Jesus: other lights are paling,
Which for long years we have rejoiced to see;
The blessings of our pilgrimage are failing:
We would not mourn them, for we go to Thee.
- 4 We would see Jesus; yet the spirit lingers
Round the dear objects it has loved so long,
And earth from earth can scarce unclasp its fingers;
Our love to Thee makes not this love less strong.

And heaven appears too dim, too far away ;
We would see Thee, Thyself our hearts reminding
What Thou hast suffered, our great debt to pay.

Strength, joy, and willingness come with the sight ;
We would see Jesus, dying, risen, pleading ;
Then welcome day, and farewell mortal night.

 Where angels and archangels
 Look ever on Thy face ;

 Unceasingly resound ;
 Where martyrs, now triumphant,
 Walk robed in white and crowned !

 To join that ransomed throng !
 Oh, teach my lips to utter
 That everlasting song !

8 Oh, give that last, best blessing,
 That even saints can know,
 To follow in Thy footsteps
 Wherever Thou dost go !

Come, my soul, thy suit prepare.

1 Come, my soul, thy suit pre - pare; Je - sus loves to an - swer prayer;

He Him - self has bid thee pray, Therefore will not say thee, Nay. A-MEN.

2 Thou art coming to a King:
Large petitions with thee bring;
For His grace and power are such,
None can ever ask too much.

3 With my burden I begin:
Lord, remove this load of sin;
Let Thy blood, for sinners spilt,
Set my conscience free from guilt.

4 Lord, I come to Thee for rest;
Take possession of my breast;
There Thy blood-bought right maintain,
And without a rival reign.

5 While I am a pilgrim here,
Let Thy love my spirit cheer;
As my guide, my guard, my friend,
Lead me to my journey's end.

6 Show me what I have to do;
Every hour my strength renew;
Let me live a life of faith;
Let me die Thy people's death.

Absent from Him I roam,
Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
A day's march nearer home.

3 My Father's house on high,
Home of my soul, how near,
At times, to faith's foreseeing eye,
Thy golden gates appear!

4 Ah! then my spirit faints
To reach the land I love,

The bright inheritance of saints,
Jerusalem above!

5 Then, then I feel, that He,
Remembered or forgot,
The Lord, is never far from me,
Though I perceive Him not.

6 So when my latest breath
Shall rend the veil in twain,
By death I shall escape from death,
And life eternal gain.

THE MORNING AND EVENING

Canticles

AND

Occasional Anthems

POINTED FOR CHANTING BY THE COMMISSION ACTING UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

ATTEST: H. A. NEELY, Chairman,
CHAS. L. HUTCHINS, Secretary.

IN putting forth this Pointing of the Canticles, etc., in accordance with the direction of the General Convention, the Commission would call attention to the great importance and practical usefulness of the following suggestions taken from the preface to the "Cathedral Psalter":

1. The words from the commencement of each verse and half-verse, up to the accented syllable, are called the Recitation.

2. On reaching the accented syllable, and beginning with it, the music of the chant commences, in strict time (a tempo), the upright strokes corresponding to the bars. The Recitation must therefore be considered as outside the chant, and may be of any length. The note on which the Recitation is made is called the Reciting-note.

3. If there is no syllable after that which is accented, the accented syllable must be held for one whole bar or measure.

4. An asterisk (*) is a direction to take breath. Other stops (, ;) must be attended to as in good reading.

5. As the accent holds the position of the first beat of the first bar, it is unnecessary to sing it louder than any of the words recited: its position, musically, will give it quite enough emphasis.
